

Services that Commence Participation and Extend the Exit

Services that commence participation	Services that can extend the exit date	Services that DO NOT commence participation nor extend the exit date
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Self-service or self-directed job search and/or workforce information services (does not pertain to WIA youth) • Staff-assisted job search, job referral, career counseling, skills assessment, testing, job development (working with employer and job seeker), workshops, job clubs • Comprehensive and specialized assessments, such as diagnostic testing and interviewing • Individual or group counseling, career planning, development of individual employment plans • Case management • Short-term pre-vocational services • Training services (occupational skills, on-the-job training, workplace training, cooperative education, private sector training programs, skill upgrading and/or retraining, entrepreneurial training, job readiness training, adult education and literacy activities in combination with training, customized training) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • DOL funded One-Stop partner program services • All required and other appropriate partner program services • Trade readjustment allowances and other needs-related payments funded by TAA, WIA or NEG that are ties to continuous participation or other activities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Eligibility determination • Case management administrative activities involving regular contact to obtain information regarding employment status, educational progress, need for additional services, etc. • Income maintenance or support payments (e.g., UI, TANF) • Provide assistance not related to employment services (e.g., giving directions or allowing rest room access) • Post-employment follow-up services designed to ensure job retention, wage gains and career progress